Joint Committee on Taxation
(JCX-7-86)

July 18, 1986

Possible Resolution of Certain Issues

			Spreadsheet Page
I.	Individual Income Tax
	A.5.	Repeal of two-earner deduction--House recedes.	5
	A.6.	Income averaging--repealed for all taxpayers effective January 1, 1987, except treatment of farmers left open.	5
	C.1.	Unemployment compensation--same in both bills.	6
	C.3.a.	Scientific etc. achievement awards--House recedes.	8
	D.5.	Ministers and military personnel deduction for mortgage interest and taxes re housing allowances--same in both bills.	10
	E.1.a.	Meal expenses--House recedes, providing that business discussion need not take place at meals, deleting authority to reduce $25 de minimis rule for substantiation requirements, and adopting Senate effective date. Banquet exception remains open.	11
	E.1.b.	Entertainment expenses other than meals--House recedes except skybox rule open.	12
	E.1.c.(1)	Luxury water transportation--House recedes.	12
	E.1.c.(2)	Educational travel--House recedes.	12
	E.1.d.	Travel expenses for attending conventions--House recedes, except Bermuda provision open.	13
	E.2.b.	Business use of home--House recedes.	14
	E.2.c.	Hobby losses--House recedes.	15
II.	Capital Cost Provisions
	A.12.	Regular investment credit--House recedes to Senate technical amendment, transition rules left open.	25
	A.13.	Finance leases--House recedes.	26
	B.	Limitations on business credits--Senate recedes.	26
	C.1.e.	R&D--University basic research credit--same in both bills.	27
	C.3.	Orphan drug tax credit--extend 3 years (to end of 1990)	28
	D.1.	Amortization of trademarks and trade names--House recedes, transition rule open.	29
	E.1.	Rehabilitation tax credit (other than transition rules)--House recedes, transition rule open.	31
IV.	Agriculture, Timber, Energy, and Natural Resources
	A.1.a	Soil and water conservation expenses--House recedes.	40
	A.1.c.	Land clearing expenditures--same in both bills.	40

J862-20

A.2. Dispositions of converted wetlands and erodible croplands--House recedes. 40
C.1.b. Foreign IDCs--House recedes, transition rule open. 44
D.1.b. Foreign mining exploration costs--House recedes. 46
E.2.a.(1) Business solar energy credit--10% credit in 1988 (other years same in both bills). 48
E.2.a.(2) Business geothermal energy credit--same in both bills. 48
E.4.a. Alcohol fuels credit and excise tax exemptions--House recedes. 49
E.5. Neat alcohol fuels--House recedes. 49

VI. Corporate

C. Corporate dividends received deduction--House recedes, item (b) open. 56
D. Extraordinary dividends received by corporate shareholders--House recedes providing 2-year holding period before the date of announcement or agreement about dividend and with technical amendments; transitional rule open. 56
F. Dividend exclusion for individuals--House recedes. 57
G. Stock redemption payments--House recedes. 57
K. Allocation of purchase price in certain sales of assets--House recedes. 63
N. Cooperative housing corporations--adopt provisions in both bills. 65

VII. Minimum Tax

A.4.m. Excludable income earned abroad by U.S. citizens.--House recedes 74

VIII. Accounting

F. Bad debt reserves--House recedes, except treatment of financial institutions, finance companies, banks for cooperatives, and production credit associations left open. 85

IX. Financial Institutions

E. Losses on deposits in insolvent financial institutions--same in both bills; reaffirm IRS announcement on noninclusion of interest credited by these institutions. 92

X. Insurance Products and Companies

A.1. Exclusion for interest on installment payments of life insurance proceeds--House recedes, effective for deaths occurring after date of enactment.	93

B.1.	Special life insurance company deduction--House recedes, transition rule open.	95
B.5.	Operations loss deduction of insolvent companies--same in both bills.	97
C.6.	Protection against loss (PAL) account for mutuals--House recedes, except recapture of existing accounts left open.	100

XI. Pensions; Employee Benefits; ESOPs

A.1.b.	Spousal IRAs--Senate recedes.	102
A.4.b.	Unfunded deferred compensation arrangements of State and local governments (required distributions)--House recedes.	107
B.6.	Top-heavy plans (benefit and accrual)--House recedes.	118
B.8.	Benefit forfeitures--same in both bills.	119
C.3.a.	10-year forward averaging and pre-1974 capital gain treatment--House recedes, transition rule open.	123
C.3.b.	Constructive receipt--Senate recedes.	123
D.3.	Asset reversions under qualified plans--House recedes, except (b), transition rules, and special exception open.	131
E.2.	Collective bargaining agreement be bona fide--same in both bills.	132

XII. Foreign Tax Provisions

A.4.	Effect of foreign and U.S. losses on foreign tax credit.--House recedes.	158
A.5.	Subsidies.--House recedes.	159
C.1.a.(7)	Subpart F related party definition.--Same in both bills; effective date open.	167
C.1.d	Subpart F exception for possession-chartered corporations.--Same in both bills; House recedes as to effective date.	168
C.2.	Application of accumulated earnings tax and personal holding company tax to foreign corporations.--Same in both bills; effective for gains and losses realized on or after January 1, 1986.	168
D.1.a.(2)-(5)	Possessions tax credit.--House recedes.	169
D.2.a.	Other rules with respect to U.S. Virgin Islands.--House recedes, except as to item D.2.a.2.iii, page 170 (authority of Virgin Islands to reduce tax on non-V.I. income), which is left open, and effective date, page 171, which is left open.	170-2
D.3.a	Treaty impact on U.S. Government employees in Panama.--Senate recedes.	172
D.3.b	Tax-free allowances for U.S. Government

	employees in Panama.--House recedes.	172
D.5.	Exclusion for private sector earnings of Americans abroad.--House recedes.	173
E.1.	Branch-level tax.--House recedes except as to item (d), where House recedes with an amendment (1) to reduce present law's income threshold to 25 percent in connection with second-level withholding tax on dividends, and (2) to base withholding tax on interest on deduction taken by branch, with amounts in excess of actual branch payments treated as interest paid to a home country parent.	175
E.2.	Retain character of effectively connected income.--House recedes with amendment to delete the provision that taxes removal of assets from U.S. jurisdiction and that steps up basis.	175
E.3.	Tax-free exchanges by expatriates.--Senate recedes.	175
E.5.	Reporting by foreign-controlled corporations.--House recedes.	175
XIII.	Tax-exempt Bonds
H.	General Stock Ownership Corporations (GSOCs)--same in both bills.	204
XV.	Compliance and Tax Administration
A.1.	Penalties relating to information returns--House recedes.	216
A.2.	Failure to pay taxes
	a. Increase in penalty--House recedes.	216
	b. Report on cost of collection charge--Senate recedes (i.e., no report).	216
A.3.	Negligence and fraud penalties
	b. Expand per se negligence penalty--House recedes.	217
	c. Apply negligence penalty to all taxes--House recedes.	217
	d. Apply fraud penalty only to portion of underpayment attributable to fraud and increase rate--House recedes.	217
A.4.	Substantial understatement--House recedes.	217
B.1.	Differential interest rate--House recedes.	218
B.2.	Accumulated earnings tax--Senate recedes.	218
C.1.	Real estate--House recedes, with reordering of persons responsible for reporting ((1) person responsible for closing, (2) mortgage lender, (3) seller's broker, (4) buyer's broker, (5) any other person designated in Treasury regulations.)	219
C.2.	Persons receiving Federal contracts--House

	recedes.	219
C.3.	Reporting on State and local taxes--House recedes.	219
C.4.	Royalty payments--House recedes.	219
C.5.	TINs of dependents--House recedes with effective date of January 1, 1988.	220
C.6.	Tax-exempt interest required to be shown on returns--Senate recedes, with provision delaying effective date one year.	220
C.7.	Modify separate mailing requirements--House recedes.	220
D.2.	Tax shelter registration--House recedes.	221
D.3.	Penalty for failure to register--House recedes with amendment deleting the $10,000 cap of present law.	222
D.4.	Penalty for failure to report tax shelter number--House recedes.	222
D.5.	Penalty for failure to maintain lists of investors.--House recedes on increasing maximum to $100,000; Senate recedes on increasing $50 penalty.	222
D.6.	Tax shelter interest--Senate recedes, with amendment providing that sham or fraudulent transactions are subject to present law.	222
E.1.	Estimated taxes--Individuals--House recedes.	223
E.2.	Estimated taxes--Private foundations--House recedes.	223
E.3.	Estimated taxes--Unrelated business income tax--House recedes.	223
F.3.	Report on Tax Court inventory--Senate recedes with amendment providing report is due every 2 years.	224
F.4.	Tax Court provisions--House recedes, with addition of 2 items: (1) allow interlocutory appeals to be certified to Court of Appeals and (2) conform survivor's annuities to District Court provisions.	224
H.1.	Suspend statute of limitations in disputes over third-party records--House recedes.	227
H.2.	Authority to rescind statutory notice of deficiency--Senate recedes.	227
H.3.	Authority to abate interest due to errors or delay by the IRS--House recedes, changing $1 million figure to $50,000.	227
H.4.	Suspension of compounding where interest on deficiency is suspended--House recedes.	227
H.5.	Exemption from levy for service-connected disability payments--House recedes.	228
H.6.	Rules applicable to forfeitures--Senate recedes effective date of enactment.	228
H.7.	Certain recordkeeping requirements--House recedes.	228
H.8.	Disclosure of return information to cities--

House recedes. 228
H.9. Regulatory Flexibility Act applied to IRS--Senate recedes. 228
J. Report on return-free tax system--same in both bills. 229

XVI. Exempt and Nonprofit Organizations

A. Exchanges and rentals of membership lists--same in both bills. 230
B. Distribution of low-cost articles by charities--Senate recedes. 230
D. Tax Exemption for certain title-holding companies--House recedes. 231

XVII. Other Provisions

B. Olympic Trust Fund and excise tax--House recedes. 233
C. Collection of diesel fuel excise tax--same in both bills. 233
G.2. Rules for spouses of Vietnam MIAs--same in both bills. 237